

Eqisearch Selects John C. Buonomo, Jr. As President

Financial Services Industry Veteran to Drive Eqisearch Growth Plan

Elmsford, NY – November 17, 2008 – Eqisearch, a leading provider of services for search and recovery of lost financial assets, announced today that John C. Buonomo, Jr. has been appointed President. Buonomo will assume responsibility for day-to-day operations of the company and will oversee Eqisearch's product expansion initiatives while reporting to CEO Carl D. Glaeser.

"The management team at Eqisearch is committed to making the appropriate investments to grow the company and recruiting talented leaders is a significant part of that commitment," said Glaeser. "In John Buonomo, we have found the ideal individual who possesses both extensive industry expertise and leadership experience to help steer Eqisearch and help us reach our growth goals."

Buonomo joins Eqisearch from BNY Mellon Shareholder Services where, as vice president and director of product management, he was responsible for the overall strategic and financial plan for the Unclaimed Property core business and for development for and implementation of new products and services.

"As states continue to hone in on unclaimed assets and requirements for companies to account for their lost assets increases, Eqisearch is optimally positioned to expand its services to a new population of companies and industry sectors," said Buonomo. "I look forward to working with the highly skilled team at Eqisearch to capitalize on these opportunities while driving growth and expansion efforts."

A veteran of the financial services industry, Buonomo has also held senior positions at Smith Barney Corporate Trust and Mellon Investor Services. He holds a BS in Business Administration from East Carolina University.
