

EQUISEARCH APPOINTS ROBERT RIEDEL AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Elmsford, NY – April 14, 2009 – Equisearch, a leading provider of services for the search and recovery of lost financial assets, announced today the appointment of Robert Riedel, 63, as Chief Financial Officer. He comes to Equisearch with over twenty years of executive management experience as both a CFO and CEO across of range of industries including financial services, healthcare and fashion.

“We are pleased to welcome Bob to the Equisearch management team,” said John C. Buonomo, president of Equisearch. “He brings unique experience growing a diverse group of companies and driving them towards profitability and we look forward to him applying his expertise and talents to our business.”

Riedel joins Equisearch from Huntleigh Healthcare Inc. where, as chief executive, he successfully restructured the medical device manufacturer through re-organization, divestiture and acquisition ultimately returning the company to profitability. Previously, he served as partner and as a member of the board of directors of Michael Stevens LTD, helping to grow the fashion accessory start-up into one of the largest handbag companies in the world. Riedel has also held senior level positions at BASF, Wyandotte Corp., Hudson Pharmaceutical Corp. and Ford Laboratories.

Riedel holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in accounting from Upsala College and a Masters of Business Administration in finance from Fairleigh Dickinson University.
